2012 All FLORIDA JURIED EXHIBITION JUROR – David Fithian

David Fithian has been the Exhibition Coordinator at the Museum of Florida Art since 2001. He has won numerous awards, judged many shows, taught countless photography and watercolor classes & workshops and exhibited his own work around the country for more than 40 years. Mr. Fithian worked as a commercial and fine art photographer from 1968-2006 and as a newspaper photojournalist for several years in the early 90s. He studied at the Art Students League in Woodstock, NY, the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts in Philadelphia, PA and headed the Graphics Department at Drexel University from 1974-1980. He says, "For me art is simply a way of life. This life of art is a never ending quest beyond the horizon for an ever receding perfection that is always evolving before dissolving into one point perspective. The objects left are fleeting but hopefully filled for a moment with a glimmer of what lies within and a premonition of what lies beyond." He is currently working on a series of large format abstract oil paintings.
