

CALL TO ARTISTS - VINYL RECORD PROJECT

Rene Miville, artist and owner of the Broadway Arts and Culture Display in Downtown Fort Myers is asking local artists to submit visual art concepts using a recently obtained vintage record collection consisting of over 50,000 records. Artists can work with the vinyl records as raw materials or feature the record jackets and vinyl in any way they choose. Please contact Andy at HOWL Gallery if you are interested in submitting concepts for this project. Approved concepts will be created by the artist and featured in several local group shows and possible inclusion in a traveling exhibit. e-mail Andy at howlgallery@live.com for questions concerning this project or to submit a concept. Deadline for submitting concepts is Monday, October 21st.
