Instructor: Doug MacGregor
Adult Cartooning, Thinking Creatively, Magic Kingdom Cartooning for Kids, Parkinson's Art Classes

Doug MacGregor has been a cartoonist for 32 years. He got his professional start drawing editorial cartoons for the Norwich Bulletin in eastern Connecticut in 1980. He moved to Florida in 1988 and had drawn editorial cartoons for the News-Press newspapers. He left that position in 2011. Mr. MacGregor is also an accomplished graphic designer, freelance artist and children's book author/illustrator. He has published five children's books, and is the author of Get Creative, Turn On The Bright Side of Your Brain, a 144-page book filled with visual puzzles, brainteasers, drawing, coloring, math and reading exercises that challenge the young and young at heart to be more creative. He has long been passionate about education and the environment; with many of his cartoons also touch on driving, safety and transportation topics. A native of Binghamton, New York, and a 1979 graduate of Syracuse University, Doug has won several state and national cartooning awards. He is a member of The Association of American Editorial Cartoonists and the National Cartoonist Society. Doug has also written and illustrated several children's books including his latest, "Ochre The Smoker," a fable about air pollution and the perils of cigarette smoking. When Doug isn't at his drawing board, you can spot him at local schools, civic associations, libraries and hospitals talking to students and adults about cartooning, current events and the importance of reading a newspaper. He also teaches locally on the importance of being creative in everyday life. Doug is also a blues musician. He plays a mean harmonica in the popular local band, Cracker Blues. Catch Doug and the band at outdoor music festivals around town.
