Kerri Stilwell Peters has been the director of the dance program at Cypress Lake Middle School since 2002. Originally from Fort Myers, Mrs. Peters began her dance training at a young age with Jeanne Bochette, Patricia Gair, and Robin Dawn. She went on to receive her BFA, on academic and artistic scholarships, from Southern Methodist University, Meadows School of the Arts, in Dallas, Texas. After graduating, she relocated to New York City. In NYC, Mrs. Peters studied modern dance at the Paul Taylor School and worked with such notable choreographers as Paul Taylor, David Parsons, Mary Cochran, Lynn Taylor Corbett and Robert Battle. As a member of Infinity Dance Theater and Darrah Carr Dance in NYC, Mrs. Peters toured nationally and internationally for three years. Her musical theater credits include a national tour of Oklahoma!, dancer and character on the Disney Cruise Line, featured dancer in the Radio City Rockettes Christmas Spectacular, as well as performing and teaching swing dance with the Broadway cast of Swing! Mrs. Peters is a member of the Florida Dance Education Organization and Actors Equity Association. In 2005, Mrs. Peters was named "Dance/Drama Teacher of the Year" for Lee county schools and she is the chapter sponsor for troupe number FL2001 of the National Junior Honor Society for Dance Arts.
